Elliott Davis Technology Solutions, LLC (EDTS) Adds Professional in Greenville Office

Adam Copp Joins Firm as Network Technician

GREENVILLE, S.C., Dec. 2, 2008 – Elliott Davis Technology Solutions, LLC (EDTS), a full service technology consulting firm, announced the addition of Adam Copp as a network technician the firm's Greenville, S.C. office.

Copp brings more than three years of information technology experience to his new role at EDTS, as well as the following certifications: Microsoft Certified Professional (MCP), CompTIA A+, and the Citrix Certified Administrator (CCA). His specialties include: desktop/server support, web page design, and printer repair.

Prior to joining EDTS in October 2008, Copp served as a network technician with IT Decisions, LLC, an information technology company located in Johnson City, Tenn.

He earned a bachelor's degree from East Tennessee State University.

"We are excited to add another experienced member to our team at EDTS," said Charles Johnson, EDTS managing shareholder. "Each member of our team brings a high-level of technological expertise to our firm. Adam's knowledge and experience will be another direct benefit for our firm and our clients," added Johnson.

EDTS began in 1999 with only two employees and has continually expanded its services and increased its staff. The combined knowledge of EDTS' workforce represents more than 80 years of experience in the IT industry.
